

STORE (CITY) / MARKT 5 / BRUGES

The neogothic building in Bruges dates back to the eighteenth century.

Markt 5 / 8000 Bruges / Belgium

The neogothic building in Bruges dates back to the eighteenth century. The building is surrounded by the city hall, the Belfry and the Market Halls. The property is a must-see location due to its authentic character and wonderful surroundings. The building has a ground floor surface of 471 m² with a basement of 183 m² and ex-janitor housing of 110 m².